

The Janesville Daily Gazette.

VOLUME 26 {Entered at the Post Office at Janesville Wis., as second-class matter.}

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1882.

Published Every Evening Except Sunday, at $2 a Year.

NUMBER 233

The names of the Melvilles ought to go into retirement.

It is said that Miss Anna Dickinson favors Ben Butler for president in 1884. This may seem queer taste to some, but when Anna will try to act Hamlet in tights, her taste has gone to wreck.

President makers are doing a good business during the holidays. One prominent democrat has gone so far as to elect ex-Senator McDonald, of Indiana, and has also selected a cabinet for him, in which he names Vilas, of this state, for attorney general.

Fathers-in-law like ex-Senator Chaffee, whose daughter married U. S. Grant, Jr., are in great demand. When the daughter was married, he gave her a house in New York city, and when the young couple found out they didn't want it, Mr. Chaffee paid them $8,000 in cash for it.

The people are getting tired of being drummed for subscriptions to the memorial funds of different kinds for great men who have recently died. The people have been called upon so often within the last year or two for such subscriptions that they are losing all interest in matter, and for this reason only $700 has been secured for the Longfellow statue at Portland.

The report that the Hon. John F. Potter, of Walworth county, was dying, is denied in a special dispatch from Madison to the Milwaukee Republican-Sentinel. The special says that he is living on his old farm near East Troy, surrounded by modest comfort, and that his estate is ample for all his needs.

We publish on the inside of this issue of the Gazette an interesting article on the "Passion play." Whatever view our readers may take of that great religious drama, and the propriety of putting it on the stage, they will yet read the interview with Mr. James O'Neil with a good deal of interest. It is worth a careful reading.

There has been a war of words between Senator Ferry and Jay Hubbell, regarding the expediency of the campaign fund. They intimated very strongly that each was a liar; and in addition to that Senator Ferry intimated that Hubbell's campaign fund was misappropriated by being spent in Michigan in the direct interest of Hubbell himself for the senate. However this may be, the country will have the satisfaction of knowing that Jay Hubbell goes out of congress on the 31 of next March. He has never honored the party.

The New York Times exposes the ignorance of a democrat of Wisconsin by publishing the following:

A Wisconsin democrat candidate for congress rushed down to Washington last week intent on making an early entry of his contest for a seat in the next house. He was surprised and disgusted to learn that the present congress has nothing whatever to do with the matter of contested seats in the Forty-eighth congress. He went home.

The Republican-Sentinel asks if that was the "impudent Haben," of Oshkosh. That would be just like an Oshkosh democrat. He wants to be ahead of everybody else.

It is reported that the family of Frank Lombard, of Chicago, the well-known singer, are in destitute circumstances. It was Frank's chief fault that he never could save, nor even protect his family by a little insurance in case of death. He made some money in his lifetime, for he was a singer of great power and was always in demand especially during campaigns, when his stirring songs moved the multitude as no orator could. During the war he was a powerful host in mass meetings, and on the concert stage he held the tears and the smiles of his audiences at his will. But after all, he lived from hand to mouth and looked not to the future, and his death brought destitution upon his family.

The will of the late Robert H. Baker was drawn with remarkable care, and in many respects is a novel instrument. He left all his property, which amounted to several hundred thousand dollars, to the members of his family. On reaching the age of twenty-one each child is to have one-third of his or her equal share of the principal and interest, and an unexpended portion of the income therein paid over. At twenty-five years another one-third, with its unexpended income thereon, is to be received, and at thirty years the final third. The final third is not to be paid until the person entitled to it shall make proof to the trustees that at least one-half of the portions paid over has not been lost, squandered or spent, and on failure to do so the trustees are to retain the unpaid share until the person shall reach the age of thirty-five.

In the proposed new state of Dakota—the south half of the present territory—there were 31,000 votes cast at the late election. By those who are opposed to forming a new state out of half of the territory, it is estimated that there are not more than 100,000 people in that part of Dakota, for new countries have not more than three people for every voter. It is said that Nevada should be an impressive lesson to congress when it is urged to make a new state. That state has, or had in 1880, only 62,000 population, yet to all intents and purposes it has as much power in the United States senate as New York which has over 5,000,000 population. But Nevada is not a good example. To be sure it was admitted into the Union at an inopportune time, and since then the population has been on a decrease. Dakota is entirely different. The territory has great agricultural resources. Instead of having barren mountains and dry and unproductive plains, Dakota has millions of acres of the finest prairie lands to be found in the west. The productiveness of the soil is hardly surpassed by that of any state in all the west; and it is not wild speculation to say that the population of southern Dakota will be doubled in three years. The democratic pie that its admission would be on a par with that of Nevada is altogether out of place, and an injustice to that prosperous territory.

By Telegraph.

THE FIGHT ENDED.

Amicable Adjustment of the Points at Issue in the Railway War.

Satisfactory Arrangements Made Regarding Territorial Encroachments and Rates.

A Report That the Omaha Line Will Become a Part of the Northwestern System.

New York, Dec. 14.—The executive officers of the warring northwestern railroads concluded their conference for peace last evening. They claim to have arrived at a settlement of their differences. An agreement was signed by the presidents of all the roads last evening. The terms are that rates shall be restored at once, and that they shall be maintained for one year from Jan. 1, 1883. Orders to restore rates to-day were telegraphed by the general managers to their subordinates yesterday afternoon. So far as can be learned the agreement does not provide for the division of business to and from competitive points. Each road is to take all the business it can obtain at any point, but at the same rates as its competitor or competitors. Any cutting of rates is to be punished by a fine of $500 for each offense. The negotiations are unanimous in the assertion that the agreement contains nothing about territorial divisions or limits. They confine themselves to the statement that the agreement was simply to restore and maintain rates. There is a reason for believing, however, that more has been accomplished by the conference than was embodied in the formal contract to restore and maintain rates, if, in fact, that is all the agreement contains. It is understood that the rear of legislative or congressional interference prevented the companies from entering into any agreement dividing the territory and restricting the construction of new roads or branches. Since the conference has been opened, the resolution has been offered in congress by Representative Townsend, of Illinois, setting forth that certain railroads were about to enter into a combination to prevent the building of competing roads and to unenclose territory, and requested the house committee on railroads to inquire into and prohibit and punish such combinations. The members of the conference say that the territorial question has been shelved and dropped out of their discussions. It is asserted, however, that before any other point was disposed of the conference had agreed to a plan of organization of the roads, and that each of them should build any more road or branch to continue business. It is reported that other new wells in the vicinity of Balltown, near which the Grandin & Kelly well is located, will be opened soon. The Grandin & Kelly well is owned by Savoy, Bowin, and Conroy, and is reported to be producing over two hundred barrels per day. As the character of this new territory is supposed to be similar though not quite so large as the ill-fated Cherry Grove district, it is not believed it will exercise any lasting effect upon prices, though its temporary influence is a matter of great uncertainty and apt to cause a lower market.

THE TEXAS BRIDGE HORROR.

Details of the Terrible Disaster on the Sunset Road, in Texas.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Dec. 14.—Eight men were killed and eleven injured in the bridge accident on the Mexican Pacific extension of the Sunset road, Tuesday. The fall was seventy-five feet. The dead were horribly mangled. The bridge was over a deep canyon three miles from the terminal telegraph station. Two courses were completed, and about two hundred men were employed in constructing the third and last course. They were raising a bent when some of the bracing gave way. There was a crash, and then the whole structure fell to the bottom of the canyon. The bridge was a wooden one, which was brought down on the track. It was thought by Maj. Goodwin, the superintendent of construction for the road, and Maj. Converse, the general superintendent, to be the best structure of kind erected by the company. They and other railroad men were present at the accident. An inquest was held last evening and a verdict returned exonerating the officers of the road and their subordinates from all blame. Work will be resumed.

Mrs. Labouche's Departure.

New York, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Labouche sailed for England yesterday on the Sorvia. When she left England with Mrs. Langtry she engaged a state-room on the Alaska for Dec. 23, but owing to her disagreement with Mrs. Langtry and the necessity of her attention to private affairs at home she decided to return yesterday. She was received to the Sorvia by Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt and several friends.

Reported Diplomatic Changes.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Reporters are floating about that within sixty days Secretary Lincoln will appoint minister to England, General Hartman to make secretary of war, and Attorney General Brewster to give Justice to the Senate.

It was agreed that the president should give his opinion on this subject. What his opinion was called for in the committee he is said to have given it with a good deal of force. The other committee, under the leadership of President Porter, was in agreement, and already had agreed to a new road, especially so the St. Paul has been the principal builder and absorber of them. Mr. Mitchell, therefore, after appearing inclined to hold aloof from the negotiations, gave them a decided turn when he did take hold. "Why," said the speaker, "I know of no reason why the road should not be built." The general manager of the St. Paul said, "I do not know the location of some parts of his line." The St. Paul people expressed themselves as gratified with the settlement as announced, and said that under the agreement they would get no business from the new road, but that they would do all the business from the old road.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market. The Omaha road is practically an extension of the Northwestern, and railroad men generally agree that it is only a question of time when the two roads must come under one roof. The St. Paul has been the principal absorber of the old road's business.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

The District Marshalship.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—It is rumored that the nomination of Clayton MacMichael, to be marshal of the District of Columbia, was briefly discussed in committee, and that the chairman was authorized to report a resolution to the senate in executive session, calling upon the president for a statement of the cause for which Marshal Henry was removed.

Death of the First Colored Lawyer.

BOSTON, Dec. 14.—Robert Morris, a widely known colored lawyer of this city is dead. He has always lived here, and was the first of his race to be admitted to the bar. He is reported to be a large buyer of stock in the market.

The Omaha road is practically an extension of the Northwestern, and railroad men generally agree that it is only a question of time when the two roads must come under one roof. The St. Paul has been the principal absorber of the old road's business.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

The St. Paul people expressed themselves as gratified with the settlement as announced, and said that under the agreement they would get no business from the new road, but that they would do all the business from the old road.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large buyer of stock in the market.

There is little doubt that he has been a large

THE STURLA TRIAL.

Remarkable Speeches for the Prosecution and Defense.

One of the Jury Applauds at the Close of Trude's Speech.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.

In his speech for the defense Mr. Trude referred to the question of self-defense, in connection with which he apprehended the court would instruct the jury that the previous quarrel of the defendant and Charles Stiles were to be considered as tending to prove the claim made by the defense that on the morning of the homicide she had cause, for fear of Charles Stiles, as far as more than five years his treatment had been one unbroken series of kickings, assaults, and all kinds of brutality. She had lived in habitual fear and alarm of Charles Stiles. That she continued to live with him, and give him money, could not be explained, except as it was explained by Dr. Schmidt, that her mind was diseased. Mr. Trude proceeded to review the evidence as to Stiles's brutality, passing over the testimony of each witness in the order it was given. What agency drove her to the Palmer house on the morning of July 10 no one knew, but that he choked her and committed the first overt act no reasonable man could doubt. And when there was an absence of motive for such a deed, there was always likely to be disease of the mind—morbid insanity, as one of the doctors termed. Nor was there any motive impelling her to live with Charles Stiles, except an idiotic, dog-like love, slinging as she did around a man who had nothing for her but words of unkindness and acts of brutality—a morbid love that was evidence of a diseased mind. Continuing his recital, Mr. Trude recounted the acts of brutality testified to by Officer Domars, Lieutenant Hayes, and William Pinkerton, and, looking toward Mrs. Stiles, he continued: "Let me right here remark that it were better for parents to teach their children morals and cultivate their hearts rather than their brains in this present generation. We would then have fewer libertines and more virgins."

"This man waged his war all the time on this woman. 'The more I thumb her, the more she likes me'—those were his very words," continued Mr. Trude, who proceeded to compare him to Sir Walter Scott's picture of Buckingham, in "Peveril of the Peak," who, by the way, was not a member of the Owl Club. "He knew she had a heart alive to human feeling, and all the way through his story I asked her for names, dates and circumstances, so that if she was not telling the truth, the Danites of prosecution could go out and hunt it up. But it was true—too true to be contradicted. Was her act of taking a little boy from the streets and sending him to school the act of a cyprian?" and looking toward Mrs. Stiles, as if to compare the purpose of her presence with the charitable act of the defendant, Mr. Trude described her as a "woman who sits here with malice on her face and forgets the divine words: 'Vengeance is mine; I will repay.'"

Holding up one of Charles Stiles's letters, he said that it was a凭据 that not a single word of the story was true. The letter was in his hand writing. "These letters were enough to sink in their infamy, in their degradation, a dozen men; and these holding up another bunch are too likely to be introduced in a court of justice. The letters are the living witness of the infamy of the pernicious, pernicious all such iniquity relations. He begged the jury to make a distinction between the God-sentiment of man and wife and the heathenish relations of man and mistress. She was not forced to live with the husband, but if he had not forced her, why did she not leave him? If for five years she had to support him, why did she do it? She was not bound by the woman's oaths to love and be faithful. The bigots used to say the heathen had no good, but the heathen had education, and some reason. Mr. Hale would not amend in favor of one offered by Mr. Logan, providing that examinations shall be practical in their character, and shall relate to matters which will fairly test the relative fitness and capacity of applicants to discharge the duties of the service into which they seek to be admitted." The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Cole offered an amendment, which was ordered voted, providing that "for the purpose of securing the application of the proposed examination, the object of the examination should be as a substitute for the first section of the Pendleton bill, to provide that there shall be three commissioners instead of five, and that the commission shall be composed of persons not connected with the departments."

The amendment was voted down, and the amendment to refer the bill was then referred, Mr. Hale, to the committee.

The journal amendments reported by the committee were agreed to. The question was then on Mr. Hale's amendment providing that competitive examinations shall be, as far as possible, upon such subjects as are embraced in the good, useful, and educational information. Mr. Hale would not amend in favor of one offered by Mr. Logan, providing that examinations shall be practical in their character, and shall relate to matters which will fairly test the relative fitness and capacity of applicants to discharge the duties of the service into which they seek to be admitted." The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Cole offered an amendment, which was ordered voted, providing that "for the purpose of securing the application of the proposed examination, the object of the examination should be as a substitute for the first section of the Pendleton bill, to provide that there shall be three commissioners instead of five, and that the commission shall be composed of persons not connected with the departments."

The amendment was voted down, and the amendment to refer the bill was then referred, Mr. Hale, to the committee.

Mr. Hale then returned to the period when Charles Stiles had taken his defendant to Carter's. "There was no man in the state or the other members of the Stiles family, with the defendant, and to tell how they had been supported by the money she earned. 'And where in the name of Justice are all these persons? and why does the state's attorney not prosecute them?'"

The story of Mrs. Robinson, that there had $300 or $7,000 of Charles Stiles's money, was absurd, and was unsupported.

Mr. Hale then returned to the period when Charles Stiles had taken his defendant to Carter's. "There was no man in the state or the other members of the Stiles family, with the defendant, and to tell how they had been supported by the money she earned. 'And where in the name of Justice are all these persons? and why does the state's attorney not prosecute them?'"

The fact is that the whole family had fastened on the earnings of this woman, and not one of them dared to come to the court room and deny it. The truth must be told in the interest of his client, and he could not help the poor old man, who was then for vengeance, not for money. She had another, another age and should stand on the steps of the Roman capital where Tarsus reigned. She knows full well what this woman had suffered, and yet her tears fall from her eyes. He proceeds to arrange his mother in violent language, to his son, who is a brother, a brother, and will, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the edge of two graves, those of her husband and her son, and the son as a brother, and papa—blat upon the face of the earth. The parents he hold responsible for the end to which the son had come. He deplored the mother's naivete, as she did, on the

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies, is unused or partially used, and when once used, cannot be sold in competition with the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, adulterated or plump powders. Sold only in cans.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., New York.

HOSTETTER'S

Celebrated

STOMACH BITTERS

Old fashioned remedies are rapidly giving ground before the advance of this conquering and powerful Bitter. It is in reality a panacea as a means of cure, has been much extolled by the success of the great renovation, which from the system, tranquillizes the nerves, relaxes the muscles, and enlivens the blood, causes the liver more dormant, and promotes a regular habit of body.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

1883.

Harper's Weekly.

ILLUSTRATED

Harper's 10c. No. 1 stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 700.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SOURCE LIBRARY, 1,000.

Postage Extra for Postage, 100.

Postage Extra for Postage in the United States or Canada, 100.

1883.

Harper's 10c. stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 700.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SOURCE LIBRARY, 1,000.

Postage Extra for Postage, 100.

Postage Extra for Postage in the United States or Canada, 100.

1883.

Harper's 10c. stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 700.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SOURCE LIBRARY, 1,000.

Postage Extra for Postage, 100.

Postage Extra for Postage in the United States or Canada, 100.

1883.

Harper's 10c. stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 700.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SOURCE LIBRARY, 1,000.

Postage Extra for Postage, 100.

Postage Extra for Postage in the United States or Canada, 100.

1883.

Harper's 10c. stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 700.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SOURCE LIBRARY, 1,000.

Postage Extra for Postage, 100.

Postage Extra for Postage in the United States or Canada, 100.

1883.

Harper's 10c. stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 700.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SOURCE LIBRARY, 1,000.

Postage Extra for Postage, 100.

Postage Extra for Postage in the United States or Canada, 100.

1883.

Harper's 10c. stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 700.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SOURCE LIBRARY, 1,000.

Postage Extra for Postage, 100.

Postage Extra for Postage in the United States or Canada, 100.

1883.

Harper's 10c. stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 700.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SOURCE LIBRARY, 1,000.

Postage Extra for Postage, 100.

Postage Extra for Postage in the United States or Canada, 100.

1883.

Harper's 10c. stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 700.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SOURCE LIBRARY, 1,000.

Postage Extra for Postage, 100.

Postage Extra for Postage in the United States or Canada, 100.

1883.

Harper's 10c. stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 700.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SOURCE LIBRARY, 1,000.

Postage Extra for Postage, 100.

Postage Extra for Postage in the United States or Canada, 100.

1883.

Harper's 10c. stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, 700.

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SOURCE LIBRARY, 1,000.

Postage Extra for Postage, 100.

Postage Extra for Postage in the United States or Canada, 100.

1883.

Harper's 10c. stands at the head of American illustrated weekly journals. By its impartial position in politics, it carefully chosen scenes, short stories, sketches, and poems, composed by the foremost artist and authors, it has won the confidence and entertainment to thousands of American houses. It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS, Per Year.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, 100.

HARPER'S BAZAAR, 100.

The THREE above publications, 300.

Two NOVELS named, 700.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE OF PEOPLE, 1,500.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE,

THE CITY

NOTICES FOR THIS COLUMN WILL BE CHARGED AT TEN CENTS PER LINE. FIRST INSERTION AND SIX CENTS FOR EACH SUBSEQUENT INSERTION IN DAILY, DAILY AND WEEKLY TWENTY CENTS FIRST, AND TWELVE CENTS EACH SUBSEQUENT INSERTION.

RAILROAD TIME TABLE.

Chicago & Northwestern.
Trains at Janesville Station.
GOING NORTH.	Arrive.	Depart.
Day Express.....	1:30 P. M.	1:35 P. M.
Fond du Lac passenger.....	3:10 P. M.	3:45 P. M.
GOING SOUTH.	Arrive.	Depart.
Day Express.....	12:35 P. M.	12:55 P. M.
Fond du Lac passenger.....	3:35 P. M.	3:50 P. M.
AFTON BRANCH.	Arrive.	Depart.
From Chicago, Rockford and Beloit.....	1:25 P. M.	1:30 P. M.
From St. Paul, Madison, Milwaukee, Winona, Dubuque and Davenport.....	1:30 P. M.	1:35 P. M.
From Chicago, Rock Island and St. Paul.....	1:35 P. M.	1:40 P. M.
From Beloit, also Madison, and Winona.....	1:45 P. M.	1:50 P. M.
From Madison, St. Paul.....	1:50 P. M.	1:55 P. M.
From Beloit.....	2:00 P. M.	2:05 P. M.
DEPART.
For Chicago, Rockford and Beloit.....	2:30 A. M.
For Madison, Winona, Dubuque and St. Paul.....	2:35 A. M.
For Chicago and Beloit.....	2:45 A. M.
For Beloit.....	2:50 A. M.
For Dubuque, Monday.....	3:00 A. M.
For Dubuque Saturday.....	3:05 A. M.
All other trains daily except Sunday.
M. HUGHEY, Gen'l. Supt.
W. H. STEENKENS,
General Passenger Agent.

Cologne, MILWAUKEE and St. Paul.

TRAIN'S LEAVE.
For Chicago and East via Beloit.....	1:30 P. M.	1:45 P. M.
From Beloit, Rock Island and St. Paul.....	1:45 P. M.	1:55 P. M.
For Milwaukee, Chicago and East.....	1:55 P. M.	2:05 P. M.
For Beloit, Rock Island and St. Paul.....	2:05 P. M.	2:15 P. M.
For Beloit, Rock Island and South West.....	2:15 P. M.	2:25 P. M.
For Madison, Portage, La Crosse, Winona and St. Paul.....	2:25 P. M.	2:35 P. M.
For Beloit, Rock Island and South West.....	2:35 P. M.	2:45 P. M.
For Madison, Prairie du Chien, Sioux City & St. Paul.....	2:45 P. M.	2:55 P. M.
For Monroe, Mineral Point, Shullsburg, Platteville, Brodhead and Albany.....	2:55 P. M.	3:05 P. M.
TRAINS ARRIVE.
From Chicago and East via Beloit.....	6:00 A. M.	6:15 A. M.
From Milwaukee, Chicago and East.....	6:15 A. M.	6:30 A. M.
From Milwaukee, Chicago and East via Beloit, Rock Island and South West.....	6:30 A. M.	6:45 A. M.
For Beloit, Rock Island and South West.....	6:45 A. M.	7:00 A. M.
For Madison, Portage, La Crosse, Winona and St. Paul.....	7:00 A. M.	7:15 A. M.
For Beloit, Rock Island and South West.....	7:15 A. M.	7:30 A. M.
For Madison, Prairie du Chien, Sioux City & St. Paul.....	7:30 A. M.	7:45 A. M.
For Monroe, Mineral Point, Shullsburg, Platteville, Brodhead and Albany.....	7:45 A. M.	8:00 P. M.
W. M. NOYES, Agent.
A. V. H. CARPENTER, Gen'l. Pass't. A/c.

AMUSEMENTS.

MYERS' OPERA HOUSE.

December 22—Minstrels.

December 23—Palmer-Saelbocker.

December 24—Helen Coleman—Widow Beloit.

December 25—Helen Coleman—Pawbriker's Shop.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS FOR HALF PRICE. We have this day received one hundred ladies' silk collars and circulars, and diagonal beavers. This lot of garments we closed out the entire balance of the stock of a well-known manufacturer, at fifty cents on the dollar, and shall sell them in the same way. No such bargains ever before known in this city.

M. C. SMITH.

December 14.

Ice! Ice!—Ice by the load delivered to any part of the city. Leave orders at King's bookstore.

J. H. GATELEY.

WANTED—5,000 men at Palmer & Stevens', to smoke Thurber's Number Five烟. America's finest five cent cigar.

The latest Christmas card novelties, at Warren Collins'.

ARTISTS, you will find the latest styles of gold frames for paintings, at Warren Collins'. Prices are the very lowest.

Ice by the load delivered to any part of the city, by Hocinooxo & Arwood.

COTTON stock for sale by J. B. Doe.

"AUNT BESY'S BEADS," at Cannon's hall, December 20th and 21st, and the favorite Geise Bros.'s, chariot players.

WANTED—At the telegraph office—A boy to deliver telegrams. Good chance to learn the business.

OLD papers for sale at Gazette counting room.

WANTED—An unfurnished room with board, in a private family. Enquire of M. A. NEWMAN.

FOR SALE—A large number of Rock county farms, desirable city residences and some business property in the city. Some of which will be sold at speculatively.

H. H. LANCHARD.

Palmer Bros., La Crosse, Wis., say: We have had occasion to give Cole's Carbolicosis the severest tests, and we never saw its equal for the cure of cuts, galls, scratches, hoof diseases, and as a general external remedy for horses. It cures without leaving a scar, and the hair always comes to its natural color." Price, 50 cents and $1.00 a box.

LOCAL MATTERS.

A CARD.

I will send FREE OF CHARGE to all who are suffering from nervous weakness, loss of memory, early decay, and those dreadful maladies consequent upon youthful excesses and indiscretions, a RICET PILLOW. This will prevent you from sleeping on a hard bed, and will be a perfect substitute, without consulting a physician. This great remedy is the discovery of a S. American Mission. This is not a professed nostrum, no one can, send a bill of exchange to Mr. Josiah Ellis, 63 Exchange building, Chicago, Ill.

PERSONAL TO MEN ONLY!

THE VOLTAIC BELT CO., Muskego, Mich., will send DIVE'S CELEBRATED ELECTRO-VOLTAIC BELTS and ELECTRIC APPARATUS on trial for thirty days to meet your requirements. Test Vitality and Strength, and Delineate, Test Vitality and Strength, and kindred troubles, guaranteeing speedy and complete restoration of health and manhood. Address as above, N. B.—No risk is incurred, as thirty days' trial is allowed.

oeckwitz.

A COUGH, CO. and some Troubles should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROUBLES do not disorder the stomach like cough syrup and balsams, but acts directly on the Inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troubles have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use, for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few simple remedies of the kind.

Where machinery is used the Drew Oil Cup will save 50 per cent of oil. Write for circular. Borden, Seelock & Co., Chicago, Ill.

BRIEFS.

Remember No. 2's annual dance at Apollo hall this evening.

The people of Fond du Lac and surrounding country are now enjoying excellent sleighing.

Prof. Severence's dancing school was largely attended last evening, and merry enjoyment was the order.

Another light snow storm in this city last night. We shall undoubtedly have a chance for a sleigh ride before the winter is over.

Workmen are engaged in repairing the storehouse of the Janesville cotton factory, which was recently damaged by fire and water.

The popular monthly published by Mr. Frank Leslie, is out for January, 1883. It is like all its predecessors, excellent and is for sale by Wall King.

The municipal court disposed of four tramps to-day, one was given three days, one two days, and one seven days, hard labor in the county jail, while the fourth received a sentence of three days solitary confinement, with a bread and water diet.

On next Thursday evening the members of the Odd Fellows' fraternity, and their families, will have a social party at Odd Fellows' hall. Anderson's orchestra will be present and furnish the music for the occasion, and a right social evening it will be.

The remains of Frank Miller, who was killed by the cars on Tuesday at Esanabana, arrived here this morning on the Fond du Lac accommodation, and were immediately taken to the home of his parents in Afton, where the funeral was held to-day.

Messrs. Foutz & Wilecox, as usual, are to the front with a rich and varied line of goods in their trade suitable for holiday presents. They are always up to the times with seasonable goods, and are disposing of their entire stock at as small a profit as "any other man" can find.

Give them a call and you will be satisfied.

Messrs. Vandeer & Leonard of the Recorder, were served with the papers in a $5,000 libel suit, this afternoon. The cause of action was the publication of an article in the Recorder on the 9th day of March, 1881, headed a "block game." Officer Drake served the papers, and T. J. Edmunds is the plaintiff.

We understand it has been decided to take the remains of Mr. S. H. Slaymaker to Lancaster, Penn., for interment. Brief funeral services will be held at his late residence before the departure of the remains for the east. The time of departure is not yet definitely fixed, but will probably be Saturday.—Detroit Free Press.

A Gentle Voice. Our enterprising druggists, Stearns & Baker, have secured the agency for the sale of Dr. Bigelow's Positive Cure, which has no superior for coughs, colds, consumption, whooping cough, and all throat and lung diseases. To prove to you it has no equal, call at Stearns & Baker's drug store and get a bottle free.

The Coming Attraction. Miss Jeffreys-Lewis, who appears at Myers' opera house on Saturday evening of this week, comes to Janesville with the stamp of success from New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, New Orleans, St. Louis and other large cities; and the reputation achieved by "La Belle Russe," the play in which she performs the title role, is of the highest. It is the story of a woman whom circumstances have degraded; striving by every means in her power to elevate herself into a position to which she has no claim, and from which her past career very properly forbids her. In her attempts to gain the end she seeks, she stops at nothing which she thinks may aid her, and even does not shrink from the shadow of murder. The interest of the play begins with the rise of the curtain on the first act, and as the play gradually unfolds, the audience becomes more and more entranced until the final climax of the last act is reached, when the marvelous acting of Miss Lewis leaves her listeners in tears of sympathy for the creature all have been on the point of hating but the moment before.

"La Belle Russe" appeals to every heart. It is emotional almost to sensational while its construction is such as to render it of absorbing interest to all.

The Beloit Free Press says that William Stafford's Shylock was in every sense a dramatic treat, and the performance merited a much better house than it received. Mr. Stafford as Shylock proved himself to be an actor of marked ability, and Miss Rand is no less deserving of much praise for her part in the play, while the leading actors were well supported in every respect.

There is no such thing as comprehending the tastes of some people. But then, the Beloit people do not know any better, and if they think Stafford's Shylock was good, others ought not to find fault.

The Electric Light. A committee of the Janesville Electric Light Co. have commenced canvassing the city for the purpose of making contracts for furnishing the electric light, and are meeting with very good success. The company proposes to contract to furnish the arc light, the same as now in use in some of the business places in the city, at the rate of fifteen cents per hour per lamp. The parties using the light are required to pay for at least two hours per night, whether they use it or not. The lamps will be so arranged that the light can be turned on or off at the pleasure of those using it. If a sufficient number of contracts can be obtained, which will be for one year, then the Janesville company will make arrangements to have the lights in operation as soon as possible. The committee appointed to canvass the city for the purpose of ascertaining who will adopt and use the light on the above terms, have only spent a few hours in calling upon our business men to-day, and we are told that the success met thus far, indicates that the electric light will be a permanent fixture in our city.

VIRTUE acknowledged.

Mrs. Ira Mulholland, Albany, N. Y., writes: "For several years I have suffered from oft-recurring bilious headaches, constipation, dyspepsia, and complaints peculiar to my sex. Since using your Electro-Belot, I am entirely relieved." Price $1.00.

Don't forget the recital at Cannon's hall, Dec. 20th and 21st. Tickets only 10 cents. The little people will play "Merrymony," with the following cast of characters, on Thursday, 21st:

Mrs. Hamilton, a lady of fashion, Gertrude Hemming.

Arabella, her daughter, Jennie Geddes Ellen, her daughter, Lettie Shortney, Child, Della McDonald.

Charles, her nephew, Andrew Pond, Katie, waiting maid, Jessie Fredrick, Dennis, coachman, Montie Burton, Count DuVaurien, Warrie Behan.

Pay What You Owe, and Be Happy! All parties owing us for lumber or building material of any kind, will please call at our office and settle their accounts, without delay.

FIFTEEN & BRO.

December 13, 1882.

Where machinery is used the Drew Oil Cup will save 50 per cent of oil. Write for circular. Borden, Seelock & Co., Chicago, Ill.

marvelous—marvelous—marvelous—

After the Wolves.

One day last week, while Mr. Thomas Joyce, of Johnstown, with a companion were out in the woods chopping, a pack of four full grown wolves passed by them, on a run. Mr. Joyce immediately followed the wolves, and in a short time came upon one which, in its attempt to jump a board fence, had become fast, and he succeeded in dispatching it with his axe. Elated with his success, he brought the carcass to the city to obtain the state and county bounty—sixteen dollars—and after a little trouble in rectifying mistakes (it being noticed in the Gazette at the time he succeeded in obtaining his reward. Upon reaching home he shouldered his shot gun and took to the wood to capture the other three wolves. He shortly came upon them, shot one and wounded another. He took the scalp, or rather the entire head of the animal, and brought it to Clerk Morgan, receiving the bounty. At an early age he gave evidence of marked activity and clearness of mind. After his school days, having mastered a knowledge of the business, he became, at the age of 19 or 20, a partner with his father in the drug trade, and soon distinguished himself for his accuracy and ability in conducting it, and in adding largely to its prosperity. Having, in 1865, established a branch of their business at Albert Lea, Minnesota, he found it necessary to become permanently located there; and in the spring of 1867, purchased his father's interest in the concern. Here business rapidly grew upon his hands, and soon took in a wide range. The memorable commercial crisis of 1873, which found him largely extended in various branches of trade, and in farming as well, left him sorely crippled. Through constantly, and actively in business ever since, up till about the time of his death, he never after regained that state of financial freedom, which is so essential to success without undue mental strain. In all his business engagements, order, promptness, and executive tact, were the prominent characteristics. But it was in the more tender relations of life that his character met his highest appreciation. No man ever responded more promptly to the call of distress, or assayed more generously to relieve it. Few more entirely forgot themselves in their endeavors to do so. None dispensed more heartily all that is mean or illiberal, and there are many who will long cherish his memory for timely aid received at his hands. He died at his home on Sunday last, after an illness of ten days. The death of his only child, a son, preceded his own, at an early age, and by his side he was tenderly laid to rest, under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity of Albert Lea.

The Shooting at Brodhead.

The shooting scrape which took place at Brodhead on Saturday night, has thrown into the woods where the wolves seem to be prowling. A number have lately been seen in the town of Janesville, north of the city, and in the marsh near Hanover, and with a pack of hounds a good hunter could easily make good wages in laying for these "pesky varmints."

The Shooting at Brodhead.

The shooting scrape which took place at Brodhead on Saturday night, has thrown into the woods where the wolves seem to be prowling. A number have lately been seen in the town of Janesville, north of the city, and in the marsh near Hanover, and with a pack of hounds